

While the vast majority of people in the auto salvage business are honest, hard-working individuals, a group of dishonest rebuilders are continuing to tarnish the salvage vehicle industry. It is this latter group that Congress must put out of business. Far too many people are falling victim to the scam of passing off rebuilt totaled vehicles as undamaged. The loopholes that allow this deceptive practice to continue must be closed now. Only cheats and crooks that prey on the innocent will benefit from any lack of action during this Congress.

While not a perfect solution, S. 852 is a significant step in the right direction. It represents a fair balance between the need to establish uniform procedures for disclosing information to consumers about a vehicle's damage history and the need to preserve states' right to determine what is in the best interest of their citizens.

S. 852 will stem the tide of motor vehicle titling fraud, protect consumers and automobile dealers, and reduce the number of injuries and fatalities on America's roads and highways. I urge my colleagues to give S. 852 their full support.
